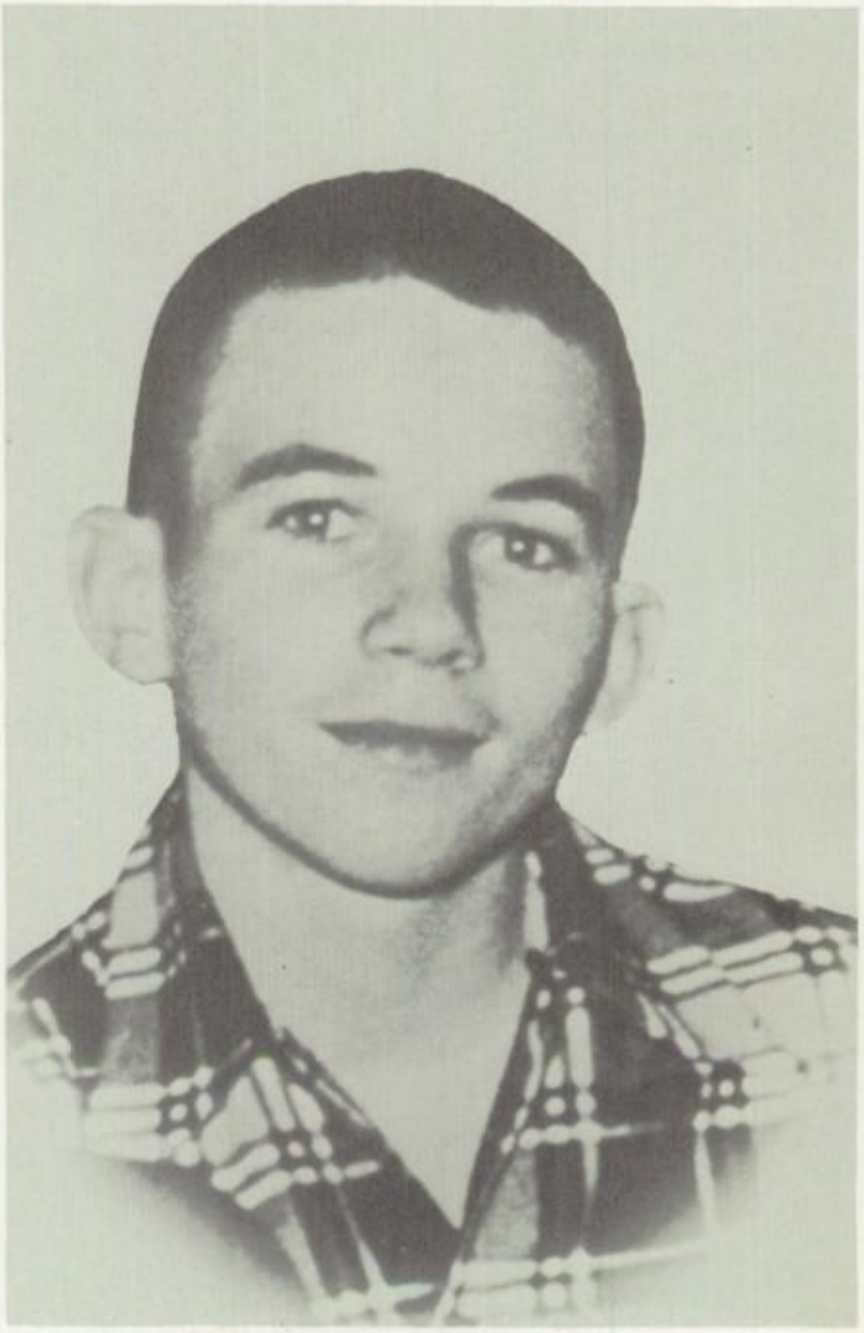
In Memoriam



Joseph Bedell, a member of the Sophomore Class, died on September 3, 1953, of polio.

He was born in Salem, June 28, 1938. He was a member of the freshman basketball team, of the Boy Scouts, and of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Sebring.

Dedication

To Marilyn Honaker, who served as advisor during our junior and senior years, we, the Class of 1954, wish to dedicate this seventeenth edition of the Goshonian. She has been a friend as well as a teacher throughout our high school days, holding before us high ideals of scholarship and character. She has given freely of her time, energy, and patience to aid us in attaining our goals, and in making the Washington, D. C. trip a reality. For her inspiration, her wise counseling, and her keen insight into our problems and plans, we wish to express our deep appreciation.

Board of Education

T. R. Sommerville, Mrs. Frances Sangree, Bruce Riley, Vice-President; LaVern Owen,President; C. G. Long,Superintendent; Myron A. West, Clerk; Robert Champion.

We are very proud of the new addition to our high school. This includes two junior home rooms, a senior home room, a typing room, a science room with a laboratory, and a gymnasium. The new gymnasium will be completed with the laying of the floor.

The newly-elected members of the board not included in the picture are Mr. Jay Bricker, Mr. Glen Shreve, and Mr. Robert L. Dickson, President.

Class History

What excitement there was on the bright sunny day of September 5, 1950 when fifty-seven freshmen assembled in the freshman home room to meet new and old friends. Mr. Matasy, our advisor, helped us conduct the election of our class officers who were: president-Galen Beck; vice-president-Bruce Reno; secretary-Eileen Bradley; treasurer-Merle Secrest. Our Student Council members were Galen Beck, Norma Miller, Bernice Sanor, and Darylene Wyss.

When school opened again--there we were sophomores. During the first week of school with the help of our advisor, Mr. Van Brocklin, we elected class officers and Student Council members for the year. They were president-Galen Beck; vice president-Donald Capel; secretary-Eileen Bradley; treasurer-Darylene Wyss. Dorothy Clark was our Miss Print reporter. The Student Council members were: Bernice Sanor, Myron Stallsmith, Norma Miller, and Patricia Galbreath. Our class held our yearly hayride in October. The World History Class under the supervision of Mr. Ingold went to Pittsburgh to the Museum. Miss Honaker's Biology Class visited the Cleveland Museum and Zoo. The Latin Class and teacher, Miss Middlesworth, attended the Buhl Planatarium in Pittsburgh. Then in May our class had a picnic at Dunn Eden which concluded our school activites for our sophomore year.

We entered the junior room without realizing what a busy year was ahead of us. In order to start out right, we elected our officers. Our officers were: president-Galen Beck; vice president-Darylene Wyss; secretary-Eileen Bradley; treasurer-Nancy Bricker; assistant treasurer-Myron Stallsmith. Student Council members were: Bernice Sanor, Marilyn Headland, Dorothy Clark, and Myron Stallsmith. Darylene Wyss was elected secretary of Student Council. We started our money-raising campaign to pay for our senior trip to Washington D. C. by selling food at football games. We also earned money by selling hose, sox, Christmas cards, candy, magazines, and by sponsoring bake sales, dances, and roller skating parties. We were the first class to have a carnival, which was a great success. With the production of "Finders Creepers" we acoomplished our goal of $2,000. We were greatly helped in our endeavor to raise money by our sponsor, Miss Honaker.

Oh! At last we are finally dignified Seniors. We started this year out by selecting our class colors--navy blue and white; flower--red rose; and our motto, "In ourselves the future lies."

Under the supervision of Mr. Ingold, October 7, we spend the day in Cleveland at the Federal Reserve Bank. We presented the play, "The Television Mystery" under the direction of Miss Honaker, on Friday, November 13, 1953. We earned $300 this year, which will enable us to spend four days on our trip. Now we are looking forward to the exciting night of "Graduation," and then--"Washington, look out, for here we come."

Class Prophecy

Crystal Ball, Crystal Ball,
Your duty is to tell us all
About the lives of our '54 grads
As they tread through life
On their various paths.

As the haze lifts a Broadway Theater comes into view. It is the "Jip-Joint" owned by Kenny Weingart and situated on the corner of Bricker Avenue and 42d Street. This street was named after New York's famous first lady, Mayor Nancy Bricker.

As we go up the steps we notice on the billboard that this is the opening night for the new smash hit "Memoirs of the Class of '54" written by the unsurpassed team of DeVall and Sanor. This is Beverly and Bernice's tenth hit in a row on Broadway.

On entering the lobby we see Janet Davis, the owner of the nation-wide "Davis Shoe Stores." She made a fortune on "Nelson's Footsies" designed by Ida Nelson.

We walked to our seats with Beverly Ruggles, editor, and Kathleen Kampfer, society photographer, of the New York K and R Times, the largest newspaper in New York. As we sit down, the orchestra directed by Don Rardon started playing the overture written and arranged by Richard Gologram.

Glancing around we see Richard Bauman, the soft drink tycoon, entering with his manager William Lucas, a very shrewd business man. They manufacture "Drink-It-All" soda pop.

Beside us sits Don Capel the Hollywood Talent Scout from Wyss and Galbreath Studios. Darylene and Patty are planning to make a movie from this stage play. Handsome Bob Miskimins and exotic Shirley Nutt will play the leading parts.

On the other side of us are sitting Linda Wallace manufacturer of "Wallace Freckle Remover." With her is her partner Donna Baird who is in charge of the distribution. She travels all over the world selling this product. They tell us that Cora Shewell is the owner of the Break them up or Make them up Matrimonial Bureau.

Looking at our programs we see that the glamorous Eileen Bradley is the star and the exciting Galen Beck is her leading man. Now that the play has begun we can see why they are the most demanded team on Broadway.

As Miss Bradley enters we see she is wearing a stunning gown created by Malmsberry of New York. Ruth Alice is 1 of the 10 best dressed women of the world because she designs her own clothes. Doris and Geraldine Swiger are her private seamstresses. They sew only for the New York dowagers. Dorothy Clark, the young socialite, is their most frequent visitor. You have probably read about her gay parties at her mansion on 5th avenue.

Miss Clark's best friend and neighbor, Joanne Summer, arrived late. She has just started a new fad in hair styles, the "Kurley Kue" originated by Norma Miller of "La Charme Solon."

As the curtain falls on the first act and we go to the Lounge, we meet Mr. and Mrs. John Stoffer. Mrs. Stoffer is the former Ada McBride. They are the owners of a large cattle ranch in Texas. After renewing old acquantances, we start back to our seats when we see a crowd of people pushing two fellows around demanding autographs. On closer look we see that it is Bill Gotschall, the owner of the sensational Cleveland Buckeye Basketball Team, with his star center, Jim Ramsey. He set a new world's record for shooting baskets. They were flown in from Chicago by Wolford Airlines. Larry just acquired the airline and Jim Taylor is the chief pilot.

The second act has just begun when we reach our seats and the new sensational singing team, Peggy Criss and Harry Bowker, are introducing a song which we think will soon be on the Hit Parade.

Just now there is a commotion and we must stand to let Annette Bush, the noted writer, whose latest book is "How To Enjoy Reading" go by. The reason she was late was due to the fact that she got the wrong taxi. It happened to be from "Stratton's Better Late Than Never" Taxi Service owned by Marilyn Stratton. She had to drive it herself because her driver, Clifford Virden, was called out to bring the four-star general, Ernest Pifer, from the Queen Mary. He has just returned from active duty in the Pacific. On the way he picked up Ida McBride who was also on the ship. She is Ernest's traveling secretary.

Now that the second act is over,we are invited to go back stage by the famous director, Myron Stallsmith, followed by his "second brain" Glenda Whitacre. She is the highest paid secretary in the U. S. today as she is always present to see that all appointments are kept.

We notice the beautiful scenery drawn by the well-known artist, Carl McCartney. We are introducted to his wife, the former Marilyn Headland, who also acts as his secretary.

While we were back stage, one of the stage hands broke his ankle, and they rushed him to the Wyatt Hospital. Janet's head nurse is Sylvia Roth. We know that the stage hand will get the best of care.

We got back to our seats just as the third act begins. Looking again at the box seats, we see Sir Donald Blasiman. He inherited a castle and grounds in England where he is experimenting with a new cow medicine guaranteed to "Kill or Cure." Beside him is that Wall Street broker, Ronnie Felgar, and Norman Haessly. Ronnie made his money from stock invested in Norman's Clunker Car Corporation,the biggest car manufacturer in the world.

After sitting back and seeing the rest of the show, we find the haze once again grows heavy and a clear crystal ball once again is all we can see, as the door of our past slowly closes.

THE TELEVISION MYSTERY

When Alice Norman's wealthy father dies she becomes obsessed with the delusion that his spirit returns to comfort and talk to her via television in the living room of her isolated country home. Her uncle and guardian, Byron Chase, is greatly concerned over the girl's mental condition and brings in a psychiatrist to see and talk to her.

Her condition gets so bad that she finally thinks her father's ghost steps right out of the screen into the room.

Then we find out that the things that Alice sees and hears have been deliberately planned by the unscrupulous uncle, who has misappropriated some of Alice's funds. He wants Alice admitted to an institution so that he will not have to make an accounting when the girl becomes of age. How Byron's plans go wrong and his associates are unmasked give a surprising and exciting twist to the end of the play.

FINDERS CREEPERS

Hercules Nelson's aunt and uncle had long wanted him and his bosom pal, Wilbur, to spend a weekend with them. Hercules knew his uncle had a new job, but he didn't know until it was too late that he was an undertaker.

At this point, the boys are ready to go home when they find Jason Quigley in the house. The "dead" Mr. Quigley walks, reads, and even climbs into bed with Hercules. Someone tried to kill him so he decided to play dead to trap the murderer. The boys try to solve the case but make affairs more confused. Uncle Bob is mistakenly carted off to jail and the boys come face to face with the culprit, Dr. Brown. Wilbur and Hercules finally escape with their necks, but not before one of the wildest finishes ever.

The band began its activities in September by taking part in the All-County Band C cert at the Mahoning County Fair.

We put on half time shows at all the home football games this fall. The end of season found us working on our Christmas program.

The second annual band banquet was held at the school on December 9. Mr. Puffenber music director at Canal Fulton, was the speaker. Our other events were the Solo and semble Contest at Youngstown on March 6, our Band Concert, which was presented March and the District Band Contest at MacDonald on March 27.

The Band Mothers' Club is planning to send two members of our organization to summer band camp at Baldwin Wallace College, and will pay their expenses.

The Chorus consists of forty members. Our first performance was a Christmas Program in which we sang several Christmas numbers. On March 6 a few members were selected to sing in a Solo and Ensemble Contest held in Youngstown. To honor the Easter season we presented an Easter Cantata before the school. The entire chorus went to Youngstown to represent Goshen Union in the Mahoning County Music Festival on April 30. In May we had our own Music Festival for the public. On May 30 we intend to sing for Senior Baccalaueate.

Fight Song

"Fight the team across the field
And show them Goshen's here.
Set the earth reverberating
With a mighty cheer-Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball.
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
And it's onward for GOSHEN HIGH."

Farewell

Alma Mater

"Lift your voices loud and clear
For our school we hold so dear
Where we've gathered day by day
To learn in life to make our way
Here we've used both head and hand
To better understand our land
Now as days so quickly fly
We revere you, GOSHEN HIGH."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As the curtain is brought down on our play, bringing a close to our book, the annual staff wishes to thank the faculty and all others who have helped in any way to make the seventeenth Goshonian a success.
